

Jesse K. Weir

We believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

And in one Lord whose name, title, and nature should be said in Aramaic

ܐܠܗܐ ܥܠܝܐ ܥܠܝܐ ܥܠܝܐ

the only one God respects enough to judge.
Begotten from the Father before all ages,
Son of Man from God,
Light from Light,
true authority of God from true God,
begotten, not made;
of the same essence and matter as the Father.
In order for him to be, all things were made.
For us and for the salvation of all of us,

he was pulled to earth,
within Maryam of Nazareth, he became incarnated and within him in her so did the Holy Ghost.
Pure love made human;
he was betrayed by a child and crucified by Pontius Pilate, but the body was freed by his followers at a cost and buried after he suffered death.
For three days he fought his way out of Hell with Saraqael, Uriel, Michael, and Remiel.
On the third, he said words to Maryam of Magdola and kissed her good bye with such love that his Grace entered her and conceived the Holy Ghost
He was then separated and collapsed back into Hell as less than nothing.
He suffered until 2000 years after his birth.
For 2000 years the Holy Ghost was engendered in the time between times and ever after, and 260 days before the 2000-year anniversary of his birth seven Holy Angels and 144,000 saints freed him again.
He brought the scares of Hell with him but carries the foundation of the Holy Ghost with him.
30 years after his birth again there would be a movement once he had time to heal and find Maryam of Magdola, may she tower above her origins.
The Holy Ghost feels with him and her on earth.

And we believe in the Holy Ghost,
 the Lady, the giver of life, she proceeds from her father and watches her mother but is empowered by the Father and taught while being hidden by Sophia, and who with the Father and her father is worshiped and glorified.
 She spoke through the prophets.
 We believe in one Church but recognize the truth in all religions.
 We affirm any fall can be reversed.
 We are struggle so that those in Sheol may rise to Heaven,
 and the perfect but good world will come.

And we believe that Gabriel sang a song wrote by Gabriel, Raphael, and Raguel to Mohammed, may peace be upon him, such that it is the divine plan if the original divine plan fails.
 The song shall be true lest the Son of Man and The Holy Ghost fail.
 Salvation is given, chosen, or earned. Amen

X

 Son of Man
 Jesus Weir
 Anointed One